

the man who tunes the world

who gives science now a brand new name, a healing flame it's the man the authorities came to blame they put him in a prison cell, don't treat him well so we have to ring the bell his unique story now we have to tell refrain:

brings new frequencies he turns the sound to light makes it bright

makes my music true i scaled the strings unfold my ancient wings the simple truth of his science is based on harmony, global harmony he invents some magic-tools for you and me one gift of him a frequency: a cosmic-sound which is all around it will change our music-heart from deepest ground interlude:

a voice whispers to the right sound birds are singing in the right sound the wind brings a breeze of new sound new sound is all around
