

x-mas reloaded

these pictures are so holy I can see some snowflakes on your face the forest in deep silence white mountains full of grace ice between the windows but a fire keeps us warm angelsongs on the radio I can hear the golden horn a door to eternity is christmas for you and me celebrate this birth

we are ready now
for changes here on earth child in the darkest night light is shining bright
celebrate this birth
christmans for you and me... the world is still and peaceful a sort of bliss is in my heart weapons of my vanity it seems they fall apart walking through the twilight I can find your footprints in the snow candles in the windows an inner light will grow...
